Dear Wing

A/N I neither own HIVE, or possess the technology to brainwash anyone into thinking I do. Unfortunately

My dearest Wing:

I am going to die soon.

I don't know when, or how " but I know it won't be long until they find out who I am, what I've done. And then " they'll kill me.

That's why I'm giving you this. It's important, Wing, keep it safe. Yin and Yang, black and white, light and dark.

There is darkness in the best of souls. I fear what your father will become when I am gone. Don't blame him; don't hate your father if the good in him withers and dies when I do. He loves you. He really, truly loves you.

But he will seek revenge for my death and I don't trust him to keep you safe.

That's why I've made arrangements for you to go somewhere once I'm gone, a special place, and a school. Take the amulet with you and keep it safe, remember, Wing, It's very Important.

Yin and Yang, black and white, light and dark.

There is goodness in the blackest of hearts. Doctor Nero is a good man, a kind man. He just hides it well. I would trust him with my life; I will trust him with yours. I have already trusted him with the other half of the amulet I gave you.

Yin and Yang, black and white, light and dark.

Life and Death.

I love you, Wing

Goodbye.
